WHAT IS PRO LIFE? ARE WE SURE WE ARE 100% PRO LIFE? – PART IV

The Church teaches that all life is sacred and must be cherished and protected from conception to natural death. By keeping this guiding principle in mind in reviewing all the following moral issues of today, we can quickly see what it means to be 100% Pro Life, no exceptions.

Embryonic Stem Cell Research

This is performed by obtaining stem cells from a developing embryo and involves killing the embryo to do that. Once again the difficult question, the possible exception: can we destroy an unborn embryo in order to save another person living in a grave terminal medical situation that could maybe be saved by embryonic stem cells? No, we can never take one life in order to save another. And in the case of embryonic stem cells, so far that has not been possible anyway. No embryonic stem cell research to date has been successful in developing any therapeutic treatments. However, the removing of adult stem cells, which does not harm or cause the death of the person, has shown great promise for treating a variety of conditions and diseases.

If you believe that killing the embryo in order to obtain the embryonic stem cells is wrong, then you are Pro Life on this issue.

MARRIAGE MINUTE: There's no place like home or is there?

Having just celebrated Christmas and many having the chance to reconnect with family members, we can be sentimental about the experience. Still others have very strained relationships with family members and old friends particularly because of choices made to live the Catholic Faith more intentionally.

If this is your situation, you share the company of Jesus in this weekend's Gospel. The strain in these relationships can cause hurt, but Jesus desires us to stand with him in confidence. To buoy your relationship with Jesus, try:

- Praying for those who “persecute” you.
 - Forgive those who say hurtful things or ignore you.
 - Intentionally use words of affirmation with those who speak ill of you.
- Build a more joyful marriage at www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
