WHAT IS PRO LIFE? ARE WE SURE WE ARE 100% PRO LIFE? – PART VIII
The Church teaches that all life is sacred and must be cherished and protected from conception to natural death. By keeping this guiding principle in mind in reviewing all the following moral issues of today, we can quickly see what it means to be 100% Pro Life, no exceptions.

Suicide

The medical profession and society in general have come to understand that a person is not necessarily in control of their mind when in a depressed state. Suicide most often comes from depression, a chemical imbalance in the brain, sometimes fueled by old psychological wounds and trauma. Professional help is necessary and spiritual direction can be very helpful also. Some say, it's my life, why can't I take it? Why do I have to go on suffering? Why should anyone tell me what I can do with my own life? We did not create our life and we cannot end it. Suicide is against God's 6th commandment, forbidding the taking of any life including our own. With the proper help, many times suicide minded individuals have been helped to recover and go on to lead happy, productive lives, bringing joy to themselves and others. No one knows the future for anyone, including themselves. We also must remember to not judge the state of someone's mind in a depressed state. We do not know God's judgment or who goes to heaven. People in a depressed state or the mentally ill need our fervent prayers and support.

If you believe that Suicide is wrong, then you are Pro Life on this issue.

MARRIAGE MINUTE: The Lord is Kind and Merciful... are you?

Kindness and mercy are so simple, but they make a world of difference in our marriages. Luckily, we have abundant opportunities to practice both. Think about:

- Being kind with your tone of voice
- Using courtesies like "please" and "thank you"
- Being merciful by extending forgiveness (over and over)
- Assuming the best of our spouse in all circumstances
- Entering into the suffering of our spouse

The trick with kindness and mercy is that we need to keep track of our own "measure," not how kind and merciful our spouse is toward us! A joyful marriage can change the world. Find out how at www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
