OTHER NEWS IN OUR ARCHDIOCESE

Pro-Life Answers to False Pro-Choice Arguments (Part IV)

"You cannot legislate morality or force your religious views on others!"

To say that laws cannot make an immoral person moral is correct. To say that we do not legislate morality is nonsense. Virtually every law is based on an idea of what is right or wrong. Laws are not passed to control thought, but to control behavior. For example, we impose our morality on rapists. We do not care so much why rapists rape, or what their moral and religious views are, or the reason why rapists disrespect women. Rape is evil and when people want to do evil, it is clearly correct for the government to impose its morality on them. Similarly, pro-lifers do not care so much what people think about babies, as long as they do not kill them.

Indeed, if laws should not be based on morality, what on earth should they be based on? The reality is that laws are based on our collective moral values and is the way society decides which activities it will and will not tolerate. If we are going to reject a law simply because it is supported by religion, then we would have to abolish most laws. A person does not have to be especially religious to say that it is wrong to abort a child, any more than they would say it is wrong to steal money. Certain activities are unacceptable to civilized people regardless of religious beliefs. Abortion is one of those issues. In reality, abortion is a civil rights and a human rights issue. Let us not forget that the black civil rights movement was dominated by pastors and was often headquartered in churches. That did not make civil rights a religious issue!

MARRIAGE MINUTE – What does the future hold? We ask this question a great deal. Will it bring fortune? Will it bring suffering? In many ways, we can lose our focus on what matters by worrying about the future. Jesus recognizes this temptation in his disciples as he ascends into heaven. Focus on the coming of the Holy Spirit, and everything else will take care of itself. Whether things are going great or we are experiencing struggles in marriage, we can apply the same advice.

Try the following:

- First, ask the Holy Spirit to be more present in your life and marriage.
- Ignore distractions like cell phones and television, and spend intentional time with your spouse.
- Share daily with your spouse one experience of God from that day.

Prayer is the key to fuel this awareness. Explore “Foundation” at www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
