

Dear Parish Family,

Congratulations on the 15th anniversary of our union as one parish! While the process wasn't always easy, your determination and faith, along with the trust you had in one another, have led the parish forward. Thank you for your sacrifices, cooperation, and unwavering commitment to make this work. You've built a strong, vibrant community rooted in love and service, and with great care and concern for one another. As we celebrate this milestone, let's look forward to a future filled with hope, continuing to grow as one united Catholic family.

With heartfelt gratitude,
-Father Bill

MISSION APPEAL: Next weekend a Sister from the Medical Sisters of St. Joseph will speak to us about the generous work her order does dedicated for the healing ministry of Christ—serving the physically, mentally and spiritually sick. They operate hospitals, dispensaries, old age home, social service centers, home for destitutes, prayer and retreat centers. They are mainly located in India, but they serve abroad as well. Five sisters currently minister at Villa St.
